

Terms of Service — ICN TikTok Content Tool

Last updated: June 12, 2026

1. Overview

This application (ICN TikTok Content Tool) is a personal productivity tool used solely by its owner to automate the creation and uploading of TikTok video content for affiliate marketing purposes. It is not a public-facing product or service.

2. Usage

This tool is intended for personal use only. It uses the TikTok Content Posting API to upload video drafts to the owner's own TikTok account. No third-party users interact with or have access to this application.

3. Content

All content created and uploaded through this tool is original content produced by the owner. The owner is solely responsible for ensuring all content complies with TikTok's Community Guidelines and Terms of Service.

4. Limitation of Liability

This tool is provided as-is for personal use. The owner accepts full responsibility for its use and any content posted through it.
